

The Association of Paediatric Chartered Physiotherapists

Neonatal AHP 9th Annual Conference 14th November 2024 Tackling Health Inequalities; An Embedded Approach Proudly Supported by Irwin Mitchell Solicitors

Holiday Inn, Kensington High St, Wrights Lane
London W8 5SP £140.00
(Including full day's refreshments & lunch)

(NB. If your trust is supporting you, please ensure they provide us with a Purchase Order number to secure your place).

Following amazing feedback, we have organised another packed and informative day; with over x 10 speakers, poster presentations, panel discussions & Q&A's, offering the latest research & innovation, along with invaluable opportunities for networking.

Please see the programme schedule below:

(For poster or presentation applications, theme/guidelines, please visit the website or email: ally@apcp.org.uk)

Booking now to secure your place!

In conjunction with our Sponsor and Allied Health Partners:

9th Annual Neonatal AHP Conference

2024 Programme

8:15 Registration, tea /coffee and welcome - Exhibitors / Poster viewing

08:50	Presentation – Irwin Mitchell	Nicola Ashton Senior Associate Solicitor & Solicitor Advocate and Kris Inskip Partner
09:00	Keynote Lecture Socio-economic status and neurodevelopment in preterm infants	Dr Katie McKinnon Neonatal Registrar and Research Fellow NHS Lothian / University of Edinburgh
09:45	Every Parents Voice: Enhancing NICU accessibility for non-English speaking families	Alexandra Connolly, Clinical Lead Speech and Language Therapist. Neonatology, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust Charlotte Bell, Specialist Neonatal Physiotherapist, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust
10:15	The Power of Storytelling to Instigate Change and Improve Support for Families and Children after Neonatal Intensive Care	Catriona Ogilvy (OT) Founder of The Smallest Things
10:45	Panel Discussion	Q&A's
11:00	Break	Exhibitors/Poster viewing
11:30	A Multi-Disciplinary QI Project To Increase Breastfeeding at Discharge	Heather Norris, Senior Specialist Neonatal Dietitian, St Michael's Hospital Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, Bristol Marina Sloan, SW ODN AHP Lead Speech and Language Therapist / Neonatal S & L Specialist St Michael's Hospital Bristol
12:00	Parental Experiences of Maternity and Neonatology Services from the LGBT+ Perspective	Laura-Rose Thorogood Founder & CEO LGBT Mummies & Proud Foundations
12:30	Poster Presentations	3 x Poster Presentations
13:00	Panel Discussion	Q&A's
13:15	Lunch	Exhibitors/Poster viewing
14:00	Keynote Lecture Creating Conditions for FICare with an MDT Approach	Nadia Leake Author / PhD Candidate Population Health Sciences Institute – Faculty of Medical Sciences, Newcastle University
14:40	A value-based co-redesign of AHP Neonatal and Developmental Follow Up Service: A project based on lived experience of local families	Karen Robertson Highly Specialist Occupational Therapist for Children and Young People (NHS Dumfries & Galloway)
15:10	MDT - Presentation Implementing a multi-disciplinary led parent group on the NICU.	Jordan Fajemisin-Scott Team Lead Neonatal Occupational Therapist King's College Hospital NHS
15:30	Panel Discussion	Q&A's
15:45	Break	Exhibitors/Poster viewing
16:00	Addressing Geographical Challenges in Designing Models of Neonatal Follow Up	Suzanne Offer (PT) Paediatric Physiotherapist (NHS Highland)
16:20	Obtaining Baby Length Measurements in a Developmentally Support manner	Pam Stepney, Senior Specialist Neonatal Dietitian, University College London Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust Emily Hills, Clinical Specialist Occupational Therapist (Neonatology), Starlight Neonatal Unit, Barnet Hospital
16:40	Poster Presentation	3 x Poster Presentations
17:10	Panel Discussion	Q&A
17:20	BLISS	Chelsie Letts
17:30	Closing Remarks	Suzanne Offer (PT) APCP Neonatal Chair Paediatric Physiotherapist (NHS Highland)

In conjunction with our Sponsor and Allied Health Partners:

